Which rules?

WCAG 2.2

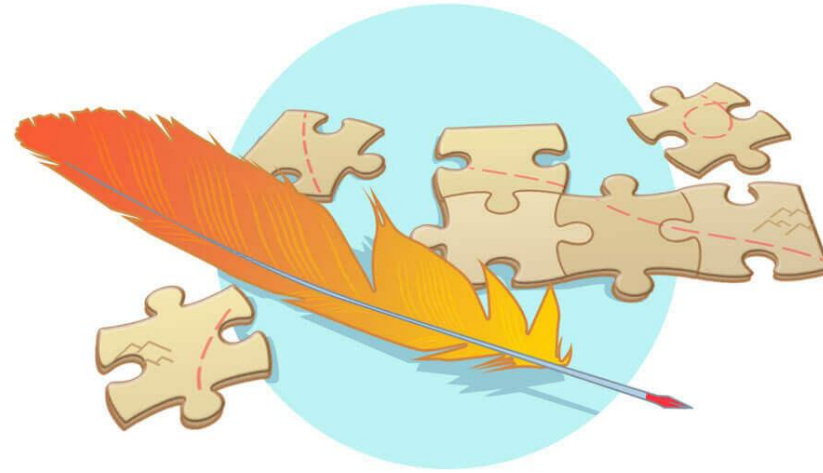

Web Content Accessibility Guidelines

3 levels: A, AA and AAA

Which rules?

RGAA 4.1
Référentiel Général
pour l'Amélioration de l'Accessibilité

French accessibility guidelines,
equivalent to WCAG AA

Digital accessibility,
what is at stake?

Human and social stakes

- A fundamental right for people with disabilities
- A lever against discrimination
- A means of promoting inclusion
- A guarantee of autonomy

A legal obligation

Article 47 of the law of February 11, 2005

Last updated by decree in 2019 (décret n° 2019-768)

- Websites, mobile applications, documents, software...
- Public and private organizations (turnover > €250 million)

What are the obligations?

- Compliance with RGAA or WCAG AA
- Accessibility statement
- Mention of the accessibility level
- Multi-year plan and action plan

An extended scope since 2023

European directive on the accessibility requirements for products and services (EAA)

2019/882 directive

- In France : article 16 from the 2023-171 law
- Extended obligations to companies providing certain online services
(banking, transportation, e-commerce, etc.)
- Surveillance authorities and enforced sanctions
- Effective June 2025

What are the obligations in June 2025?

- Compliance with the EN 301 549 standard (mainly via WCAG AA)
- Public information on how accessibility is addressed (via the terms and conditions or a dedicated document)
- Transparency towards surveillance authorities (OSAPS)
- Controls and sanctions specific to each EU country

Thank you!
